Dr. Masroor Ahmad Beg
Officiating Principal
Zakir Husain Delhi College (Morning)
University of Delhi, India.

Principal's Message

In its long history, Zakir Husain Delhi College has been true to its motto, “live by love”. In keeping with our tradition of recognizing the accomplishments and diligence of its teachers and students, once again we are felicitating our achievers on the eve of college Annual day 2018-19. Achievements of colleagues and students are a mark of excellence for any institution and a moment of pride for the head of the institution.

A blend of academic pursuits and extra-curricular activities in a harmonious way is essential for the personality development of the students. Participation in group activities during cultural events develops a sense of solidarity among students and inculcates humanistic values. Our college has always encouraged students to actively participate in both, academic and extra-cultural activities to harness their energy in creative pursuits.

I convey my heartiest congratulations to colleagues for their achievement in their respective disciplines during 2018-2019 and to all the students for their great feats in different fields ranging from NCC, NSS and Sports to debate, creative writing, music, dance and drama. It is heartening to report that our students have not only participated but also won several prizes in various inter-college and national events.

I am thankful to all the members of the teaching fraternity and non-teaching staff for their contribution in organizing this event. Special thanks to those colleagues who had worked meticulously in several committees to make the Annual Day and Award Ceremony, a huge success. I am confident that Zakir Husain Delhi College will continue to accomplish great feats in the years to come.

Annual Day and Award Ceremony
2018-2019
Zakir Husain College

Coordinator's Message

Annual day and Award ceremony is an illustrious event for any institution. Awards not only recognize individual excellence but also motivate other students to participate in academic and co-cultural activities of the college. Annual reports encourage fellow colleagues to actively participate in corporate life of the college. Such collaborative efforts enhance the morale of the students, teachers and staff.

This annual report is a value addition in our collective intellectual journey. I congratulate all the award winners and individual achievers who have proved their mettle in different fields. I am thankful to my colleagues, who participated in several committees and worked tirelessly to ensure the success of the Annual day function, 2019.

Reports of College Committees

Memorial Lecture Committee

Convenor: Dr. Ratnum Kaul Wattal

The 12th Delhi College Lecture was held on 23rd April 2019. Padamshree Ram Bahadur Rai, President, Indira Gandhi National Centre for the Arts delivered a lecture on “Gandhi iss Samay”.

Arts and Culture Society

Convenor: Dr. Anuradha Marwah

The Arts and Culture Society is a thriving body of students committed to the practice, development and propagation of performing arts. It is one of the most active student groups in the University of Delhi, winning various competitions every year and its members performing extraordinarily well individually. The society is headed by Dr. Anuradha Marwah Associate Professor, Department of English. She is an eminent theatre personality as well as a renowned international scholar. The student secretary for the year 2018-2019 is Mr. Raja Dutt. The Arts and Culture Society has a group of accomplished and dedicated faculty members to supervise the functioning of its six sub-societies.

The six sub societies of the Arts and Culture Society are Aman-the Theatre Society; Dhanak-the Western Dance Society, Dhwanik-the Indian Classical Music Society; Suchitra- the Fine Arts Society; Nrityathi-the Classical Dance Society; and Illume- the Western Music Society. Suchitra, Nrityathi, and Illume were established in the current year. All these sub societies have not only performed but have also excelled in various competitions.

Aman : The Theatre Society of Zakir Husain Delhi College was established in 2015 and has subsequently made significant contributions to the New Delhi theatre circuit. The society has brought laurels to the college by winning numerous competitions at Collegiate, State and National levels. It has been invited to perform by organisations such as Shakespeare Society of India, the British Council, Ashoka University, Kirori Mal College, among many other prestigious institutions. Through its incessant hard-work and unwavering commitment Aman has been able to win the National Drama Competition of the Shakespeare Society of India for a record five times in a row.

In the session 2018-19, Aman Theatre Society performed Asghar Wajahat's Godse@Gandhi.Com, directed by Sumit Bera, at many national and state level competitions winning accolades at institutions like IIT Ropar and IIT Roorkee. The play was also performed at the famous Kamani Auditorium as a part of SahityaKalaParishad's "Mahavidyalaya Naatya Samaaroh." Aman was selected to perform the play at the prestigious Old World Collegiate Theatre Festival organised at the India Habitat Centre. It had two houseful ticketed shows thus adding another feather in its cap. Ms. Hridyanshi Toor won the Best Actor award for her performance in the play at IIT Ropar.

Aman performed its second production, 'Liyaqat', an adaptation of Shakespeare's tragedy King Lear, directed by Zeeshan Khan at the Shakespeare Society of India's National Drama Competition. The performance won award for the Best Production, while Alyasa Abbas won the Best Actor award and Nikhita Khurana won the award for Best Supporting Actor. It also received two rolling trophies for winning the competition a record five times. The Department of English of our college invited Aman to stage the play at their International Students' Conference.

The members of the society participated and rendered commendable performances in other events as well. Mr. Vishava Prakash won special mention for mono-acting at PGDAV(E)'s fest; Ms. Lalita Patel bagged first prize at IIT Roorkee and third at IIT Bombay at National Level Competitions in Freestyle Solo Dancing.

Dhanak: The Western Dance Society of Zakir Husain Delhi College is amongst the most well-known societies in the University of Delhi. The objective of the society is to provide platform to dynamic students to showcase and polish their talents.

This year, Dhanak prepared three different group performances choreographed by Mohit Gupta. These groups participated in different national level competitions including prestigious institutions such as IIT Roorkee and IIT Bombay. Their performance won the second prize at IIT Roorkee. The performances were also given at various colleges of University of Delhi, successfully making it to the finals of many competitions and winning at colleges like B.R. Ambedkar College and Zakir Husain Delhi College (Evening). The team also debuted at the Delhi Dance Fever making it to the final round, a rare feat for a debutant team.

Continuing the success, the group members obtained individual prizes in inter-college as well as national level competitions. Ms. Nishtha secured first position at Ambedkar University, in addition to podium finishes at PGDAV college and Ram Lal Anand College. She also made it to the core team of Mental Health Festival organized at AIIMS. Ms. Shailja secured third position at PGDAV college, and gave her Kathak dance performance at the Kamani Auditorium. Mr. Ashwin and Ms. Nishtha performed at the Red Festival organized by a queer youth alliance and social advocacy group 'Nazariya'. Ms. Nishtha and Ms. Shailja won multiple prizes at the University of Delhi colleges as well as Mental Health Festival (AIIMS).

Dhwanik: The Classical Music Society of Zakir Husain Delhi College is one of the oldest and most admirable societies of the college and enjoys considerable reputation in the music circles in University of Delhi.

This year Dhwanik composed four classical ragas- RaagBhupali, RaagDesi, RaagSurMalhar, and RaagMiyaMalhar. The group participated in the national competition at IIT Kanpur in addition to other inter-college contests in University of Delhi. The outstanding performances of Mr. Nabeel, a skilled Sarangi player and Mr. Daksh, a gifted classical singer brought remarkable recognition to the society. They won as many as twenty-four prizes at the college together with state and national level competitions. Mr. Devesh Bisht and Mr. Sargam Boruah gave individual performances in University of Delhi colleges.

Suchitra: The Fine Arts Society, founded this year, has already made its presence felt in the fine arts community of the University. In addition to making regular contributions in various college events like NSS events the society participated in various intra-college projects coupled with engagements at IIT Delhi, IIT Kanpur and IIT Bombay. The members of the society were nurtured and inspired by this extensive exposure. Mr. Amit Gupta, Mr. Ankur Raman, Ms. Monika Rawat, Ms. Javi Gautam, Mr. Nitish Kumar Bharti and Mr. Tejas have won prizes in competitions as diverse as 'making art out of waste', 'wall painting,' 'dress making out of waste' among many others.

Nrityathi : The Classical Dance Society is another new addition to Arts and Culture Society of the college. The Society currently consists of six committed classical dancers of varied backgrounds including Odissi, Kathak, Mohiniyattam, Bharatanatyam and Kuchuppudi, working under the guidance of Ms. Shabana Azami and the society coordinators from the Arts and Culture core group.

Nrityarthi's first performance was at the Independence Day celebrations of our college. It went on to perform at the Mental Health Festival at Jawahar Lal Nehru Auditorium, AIIMS, and IIT Roorkee. Ms. Lakshmi Priya (Bharatanatyam), Ms. Chandhana S. Anand (Kuchipudi), Ms. Ayushi Kashyap (Bharatanatyam), Ms. Anisha Mukherjee (Odissi) and Ms. Abhirami have performed at various University of Delhi college fests.

Illume : The Western Music Society is the third new addition that was made in this session. The name is short for 'Illuminate'. Though still in its nascent stage, the society has experimented with numerous styles of western music viz. Rap, Rock and Pop, Western Classical, Jazz and Acapella, thus providing the much-needed diversity on the musical front. The members of the society performed at IIT Roorkee, Gargi College, IIT Delhi and Aryabhata College.

B. A. Programme Society

Convenor: Mohd Arif

B.A. Programme Society organized their fest Ibtada on 8th and 9th March 2019. Dr. Atmesh Kumar Department of Psychiatry, St Stephen's Hospital was invited as the chief guest, who delivered a lecture on "Mental Health: Demystifying Depression." Some more events like G.K. quiz, Poster making, best out of waste, Ethnic Fashion walk, Mehendi competition, solo singing, solo dancing were conducted. Besides this presentations on different topics related to their subjects were also given by the students.

Botany Society: Nargis

Convenor: Ms. Devayani Muley

The inaugural lecture of Botanical Society Nargis was held on 17th Sept 2018. Prof. Paramjit Khurana, Head Department of Plant Molecular Biology, University of Delhi, delivered a talk on "Role of Plant: Biology Under Changing Climatic Conditions". Our students got to interact with Prof. Paramjit Khurana and cleared their queries for future research involvement. The society organised its annual festival "Blossom" on 8th March 2019. The various events held during the festival were Botanical Rangoli, leaf art, plant sketching and "Just a Minute". The botanical society "Nargis" also organised an environment quiz for Dr. Virendra Kumar Rolling Trophy on 8th March 2019 for creating awareness regarding the role of environment and its protection.

Career Counselling and Placement Cell

Convenor: Dr. Dhiraj Kumar Singh

Career Counselling and Placement cell of the college commenced its activities in the academic session 2018-19 with an Orientation Program and motivational talks by renowned speakers. Subsequently, the Cell organized many activities throughout the year. The cell received tremendous response in the Job Fair'19 with a footfall of more than 2000 students from across the colleges of University of Delhi. The fair provided students with jobs and internships in high standing companies like Wipro, TATA Power, Concentrix, ICICI Bank, IDBI Federal, HealthMug, CNCS Infotech, Saisons Global Consultancy to name a few. These companies offered opportunities varied in scope to the students. The cell also invited many startups and NGOs to assimilate the spirit of social responsibility amongst the students. Seminars were organised and workshops conducted during the academic session 2018-19 to polish the skills and enhance the personality of each and every student in order to prepare them for the future endeavours.

Debating Society

Convenor: Dr. Aftab Alam

The Debating Society commenced the new academic session with its audition and freshers' welcome/debate competition. The Debating Society successfully organized the Second Zakir Husain Memorial Parliamentary Debate Competition from 23-25 February 2019 where teams from more than 40 colleges/universities participated. It also organized another prestigious Annual Parliamentary Debate Competition (in English), Ikhtilaf, from 18-20 March 2019 which witnessed a participation from 36 colleges/universities. Like every year, our students participated in several debate competitions at state, national and international levels and won various prestigious awards/prizes at IIT, Kirori Mal College, Lady Sriram College, Jamia Millia Islamia, Aligarh Muslim University, Doon University, Hansraj College, Daulat Ram College, Mata Sundari College, Gandhi Smriti, National Gandhi Museum, Khalsa College, Swami Shraddhanand College, Shyama Prasad Mukherjee College, Ramjas College, Kalindi College, Gargi College, and Delhi College of Arts and Commerce. Subsequently, the society also invited resource persons from different fields to deliver lectures on issues of national and global importance.

Enabling Unit: Hum Honge Kamyab

Convenor: Dr. Ragesh P.R

Hum Honge Kamyab, the Enabling Unit of Zakir Husain Delhi College began its activity with Freshers' welcome in the month of September, 2018. The annual fest of the society 'Utsav' was organized on 15 March 2019. The function was inaugurated with a motivational lecture by Dr. Santosh Kumar, Assistant Professor, Aditi Mahavidyalya, University of Delhi. The lecture was followed by various inter-college competitions like singing, dancing, quiz and talent hunt. These competitions provided platform for showcasing the talents of differently abled students to the larger student community in the college. Apart from providing opportunity to the differently abled students to engage in extra-curricular activities, the Enabling unit also sensitise the youth on the daily challenges and needs of the differently abled students. It helps to promote the spirit of assimilation in the students' community.

Gandhi Study Circle

Convenor: Dr. Sanjeev Kumar

With its primary objective to discover the relevance of Gandhi's philosophy and to spread the message of Gandhi especially among the youth and society Gandhi Study Circle held many public events and activities during the academic session 2018-19.

To mark the 100th birth anniversary of Nelson Mandela, a Public Lecture on "Nelson Mandela in the Footsteps of Gandhi: Centenary Tributes" was organized by Gandhi Smriti and Darshan Samiti (GSDS) in collaboration with Zakir Husain Delhi College.

The society conducted an Orientation Programme on July 31st, 2018 where the panel discussed the "Relevance of Gandhi in the Contemporary World." The programme was followed by an election of the office bearers. An interactive workshop on "Stress Management and Inter-personal Conflict Resolution" was organized for the students on July 30, 2018. The workshop was conducted by Shri Atul Priyadarshi an expert trainer from Patna. During the workshop, Shri Atul Priyadarshi focussed on different aspects of stress management such as 'individual stress', 'emotional stress', 'physical stress', 'behavioural stress' and how that affects the psyche of an individual both at the workplace as well as at home.

On August 9th, 2018, Shri Kumar Prashant, an eminent Gandhian activist and Director, Gandhi Peace Foundation was invited as a guest lecturer to speak on 'Gandhi in Today's India.' On August 29, 2018, a 'One Day Trip' to Gandhi Darshan and Gandhi Museum was organized in collaboration with the National Gandhi Museum and Gandhi Darshan to make students familiar with the Gandhian values and ethics. A discussion on 'Revisiting Gandhi's legacy: Reflection on the question of caste and class’ was held on September 27th, 2018. Dr. Nishikant Kolge an eminent historian and author of ‘Gandhi against Caste’ enlightened the audience with her views and opinions on the subject of Gandhi and caste.

One of the significant initiatives at bringing Gandhi closer to the youth has been the introduction of “Charkha Spinning Classes” since 2017. With the help of Gandhian activist Mrs. Indubala, Charkha spinning classes formally began this year from September 2018 in the college with over 30 students enrolling themselves for learning this skill.

Over a dozen students from Gandhi Study Circle participated in the two day event organized by Gandhi Bhavan, University of Delhi to celebrate the 150th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi on October 2, 2018. To mark the 150th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, the society began a week-long celebration from October 3, 2018 by organising various activities including quiz competition, movie screening among others. The Circle invited the Aman theatre society of the college to perform the play Godse@Gandhi.com giving insight into yet another aspect of Gandhi’s life.

A group of four students from the society presented a paper on ‘Gandhian Philosophy of Non-Violence’ in a one day seminar on ‘Confluence of Creative Expressions of Youth on Nonviolence’ organized by Gandhi Darshan, Rajghat on October 6-7, 2018.

On January 30th, 2019, the society scheduled a Gandhi Samvad on ‘Challenges of Nation Building’ in which eminent sociologist and social activist Prof. Anand Kumar spoke on current dilemmas confronting the nation today. Members of the society also represented Zakir Husain Delhi College in a week long celebration 'Gandhi week' organized by Gandhi Bhawan, University of Delhi from January 30th- 5th February, 2019.

Members of the society also participated in a day-long event 'A day with Kasturba', organized by National Gandhi Museum, New Delhi on February 8, 2019. On 14-15 February 2019, the society organized its Annual Inter-College Festival. The event started off with a Gandhi Bhajan: Vaishnav Jan To on the first day followed by a Public Lecture by Professor Madhulika Banerjee on 'Aaj Ke Gandhi.' Several other activities including Quiz on Gandhi, debate competition and round table discussion were held to commemorate Gandhi and his legacy in the two day event. The major attraction of the fest was the charkha display where the volunteers displayed charkha and acquainted other students with the operation and importance charkha. The fest concluded with the prize distribution ceremony and the resolve to carry forward the message of Gandhi.

GARDEN COMMITTEE

Convenor: Dr Malti Gupta

The college participated in the 61st Annual Delhi University Flower show held on March 1st 2019, under several categories and groups, displaying seasonal flowering plants, perennial foliage plants, cacti & succulents, bonsai, hanging baskets, cut flowers and flower decorations along with the college herbal, rose and Rock gardens. All these plants are raised from fresh stocks every year in the college gardens itself. Under female student category, large number of enthusiasts participated and excelled in winning in most of the categories. The college won several prizes, including ten cups from all over the entries. Honourable Pro-Vice Chancellor of University of Delhi, Professor J. P. Khurana gave away all the prizes. College Herbal garden, Rose and Rock gardens were adjudged second best in the league. All this has been largely possible due to the hard and sincere efforts of our gardeners, under the guidance of Garden Committee members throughout the year.

Girls' Association: Aasmi

Convenor: Dr Devyani Muley

The inaugural lecture of Aasmi was delivered by Dr Runvijay, the chief instructor of Karma Spark on the topic "Good Health-A Key to Happiness" on 3rd Oct 2018 on." An icebreaker "let's know us" was organised for the freshers where they got the opportunity to showcase their talents.

A talent hunt 2019 was organised on 15 Feb 2019 in which various events were like Mehendi, Singing, Flameless cooking, solo and group dance, and ethnic fashion show Tarz-e libaaz were held. On 20th Feb 2019, Girl's association in collaboration with placement cell of Zakir Husain Delhi College conducted a workshop and talk on "Know your Rights" (Ab samjhouta nahi) with ITC vivel. It was an interactive and enthusiastic workshop.

The Internal Complaints Committee

Convenor: Ms. Nagma Zafir

The ICC worked efficiently and conscientiously towards its goal of resolving issues related to gender discrimination in the session 2018-19 under the guidance of Ms. Nagma Zafir. It worked in collaboration with the NGO Saheli and held Orientation programmes on rules and regulations related to gender discrimination. The ICC also organised talks by eminent experts in this area like Advocate Zeba Khair, a Supreme Court lawyer to disseminate information about laws related to gender issues and the legal position of the ICC in these matters.

National Cadet Corps (NCC)

Convenor: Dr. M. M. Raheman

National Cadet Corps is a tri-services organization, comprising the Army, Navy and Air Force, engaged in grooming the students into disciplined and patriotic citizens. It is a voluntary organization wherein cadets are recruited from diverse backgrounds and are given basic military training in small arms and parades.

The NCC unit of Zakir Husain Delhi College is the heart of the 7th battalion, Delhi, Group "C". The College unit consists a total of 160 cadets and is one of the highest strength holding college units in the entire University of Delhi. The NCC unit functions under the guidance and commendable leadership of Capt. (Dr.) M.M.Raheman, Associate NCC Officer, Zakir Husain Delhi College.

In the academic session 2018-2019, the cadets attended various local and national events. Six of our candidates participated in the Republic Day camp. Six cadets including Junior Under Officer (JUO) Saurabh, Cadet Gaurav Sisodia, Cadet Sanjeev Dahiya, Cadet Ritik Raj, Cadet Ankur Malik, Cadet Vishal Singh represented the college and the Delhi Directorate at the Republic Day Camp final as well as at the Prime Minister's Rally.

Thirty of our NCC cadets also participated in the Army Attachment Camp held at Meerut Cantt. In this camp, the cadets are trained by the instructors of a particular regiment, in military tactics including day/night warfare wherein the cadets also get the opportunity to get familiar with the weaponry. Our cadets were trained under the guidance and supervision of JCOs of the 274 field regiment (artillery). The College was led by Junior Under Officer (JUO) Ubais and Senior Under Officer (SUO) Raju as 7DBN senior and college senior respectively.

Three of our cadets were selected to attend the Advanced Leadership Camps (ALC) this year too. These camps are conducted twice a year and attended by many cadets from all over the country to learn leadership skills, focus on personality development and orientation for induction into the armed forces. Junior Under Officer (JUO) Himanshu Khewaria attended the ALC II held at Coimbatore, representing the Delhi directorate. He was one of the four cadets selected from the Delhi directorate.

Two of our cadets-Senior Under Officer (SUO) Munish Rana and Junior Under Officer (JUO) Deepak were selected to attend the ALC-III held at Ahmedabad. Senior Under Officer (SUO) Munish Rana was selected as directorate senior 2IC, (Delhi Directorate) who also bagged the All India 2nd Rank in the mock SSB tests conducted in the camp.

Six cadets from our college were selected for the guard of honor and wreath laying ceremony at Amar Jawan Jyoti while nine cadets were part of quarter guard. Senior Under Officer (SUO) Munish Rana was selected as the All India Guard Commander.

In Combined Annual Training Camps (CATC), the boys (Senior and Junior Division) and girls (Senior and Junior Wing) of the NCC unit participated in the 15-day camp. In these camps, classes are conducted as per the given syllabus wherein the cadets are once again instructed in certain aspects of NCC training. The camp acts as a refresher training programme for the cadets where they are also trained in basic skills of survival and emergencies. They are given lessons in skills pertaining specifically to their Wing. Another activity in the camp is the "dogwatch" where two cadets are to stay on sentry duty for two hours at any given time of the day. Those caught sleeping, especially during late night or early morning shifts, or otherwise missing from duty are severely reprimanded or penalized. Cadets are also introduced to weapons such as a .22 caliber rifle.

Seventy-five of our cadets attended the camp led by Senior Under Officer (SUO) Munish Rana And Senior Under Officer (SUO) Raju Kumar Singh.

This session also witnessed our cadets participating in several National Integration Camps (NIC) held in various parts of the country. National Integration Camp (NIC) is to propagate national integration among cadets and the society. Only the best cadets in drills and march are sent to represent their States. These camps are conducted on All India basis and help bridge the cultural gap among various States of India. Our cadets utilized the opportunity to gel with other cadets of the directorate and to share cultures to inculcate a feeling of oneness among themselves. Only three cadets were selected from Delhi Directorate and all three of them were from our college. Cadet Rajat Kumar led the Delhi Directorate contingent in the camp.

The Thal Sainik Camp (TSC) is a 12 days camp conducted in Delhi every year in the late autumn, in which the cadets are selected from all 17 directorates. The selected cadets then are sent to the TSC to represent their respective directorates in competitions such as: Obstacle course, firing, map reading and home nursing. This year four of our cadets, Cadet Prabhat Thapa, Cadet Yogesh Malik, Cadet Ankur Malik and Senior Under Officer (SUO) Sahib Rana attended the Pre TSCs and reached the TSC Final bringing laurels to our college.

ZAKIR HUSAIN DELHI COLLEGE HAS ALWAYS STOOD STEADFAST AS A CHAMPION OF SOME BASIC VALUES WHICH HAVE ACQUIRED GREATER RELEVANCE IN CONTEMPORARY TIMES. THE COLLEGE IN ITS LONG HISTORY HAS ACCOMMODATED STUDENTS AND FACULTY OF DIFFERENT COMMUNITIES. GRADUALLY IT HAS EVOLVED A CULTURE OF UNDERSTANDING AND RESPECT FOR DIFFERENCE OF CASTE, CREED AND RELIGION. ON ENTERING THE COLLEGE EVERY YEAR NEW STUDENTS FROM THE "WALLED CITY", FROM ACROSS THE RIVER, AS ALSO FROM THE SOUTH AND NORTH OF DELHI AND OTHER PARTS OF THE COUNTRY, WALK INTO AN AMBIENCE OF COMPOSITE BEARING AND HARMONY. EDUCATION FOR US IN THIS COLLEGE IS NOT A MERE PURSUIT FOR INFORMATION: WHAT WE STRIVE FOR IS A HOLISTIC DEVELOPMENT OF CHARACTER WITH A COMMITMENT TO BUILDING A STRONG KNOWLEDGE BASE. FOR THIS, OUR TEACHERS, STUDENTS AND EMPLOYEES WORK TOGETHER IN CLOSE ASSOCIATION. NOT ONLY DOES THE COLLEGE UPHOLD TRADITIONAL VALUES OF COURTESY AND REGARD FOR THE OLDER AND THE WEAK, THERE IS ALSO A SENSITIVE CONCERN FOR JUSTICE AND A SENSE OF FAIRNESS. THE ALERTNESS TO GENDER EQUALITY TOO IS DEMONSTRATED AMPLY THROUGH A NUMBER OF AWARENESS PROGRAMMES ORGANIZED IN THE COLLEGE. AS A RESULT THERE IS AN ATMOSPHERE OF GOOD CHEER RATHER THAN STRESS ON THE CAMPUS. IN DEED AND SPIRIT WE "LIVE BY LOVE".
