

Intramural Competitions

The Department organises intramural specially for college students in chess, carom, table-tennis and badminton. This gives them a platform to showcase their talent and gives them an opportunity to relieve their stress while being physically active.

