

Arts and Culture Society - 2013

Co-ordinator: Dr. Babita Churungu Kaula

The Arts and Culture Society was sanctioned a grant by the Ministry of Culture for organising various activities in this academic year

Arts and Culture Society conducted a theatre workshop followed by the play 'Punchlight', directed by Shri Surendra Sharma from National School of Drama. A music workshop was also conducted by Ms. Sawani Mudgal from Gandharva Mahavidyalaya, which led to the performance 'Ta, Na, De, Re, Na.' The society also organised yoga and dance workshops that were also conducted by Sh. Lokesh Bhardwaj.

Besides its aesthetic focus, the society also has many social commitments that occasioned in a visit to the Cheshire Home of people with special needs where the students interacted with the inmates and entertained them.

Members of the society also worked with the Election Commission of India and campaigned about the right to vote.

The members of the society presented patriotic songs during the celebration of the Independence Day in the college. They also participated and won several prizes at Antardhwani– the cultural festival of the University of Delhi.
