

Arts and Culture Society – 2016

The arts and culture society of the college has been very actively engaged in imparting value based education to the students. This year a series of month long theater workshops were conducted by Surendra Sharma. During these workshops a group of almost fifty students were trained and they presented the play 'Taj Mahal Ka Tender'. The students of theater society also participated in the Shakespeare Society of India's national drama competition held at St. Stephen's college, and presented 'Rana' an adaptation of Shakespeare's Richard III. The play was adjudged the best play, and Zeeshan Khan and Arham Sayeed Quadri were declared the best actor and best actress respectively.

The play received accolade from Jonathan Gill Harris, the president of Shakespeare Society of India. After this performance the theatre group received a special invitation from Ashoka university to perform the play.

Another play of the theatre group- 'Safarnama-' written and directed by our own student Zeeshan Khan has been presented in various colleges of Delhi University and also in Jamia Milia Islamia.

During the 4th Bhasham Sahni Book Fair in the college, the theatre group staged "Chief ki dawat" a play written by the esteemed author Bhasham Sahni.

The Arts and Culture society also conducted a series of month long workshops in music under the guidance of Mohit Dobhal from Gandharva Mahavidyalaya, after which they performed a musical presentation- ta na de re na. The members of the music group were invited by Oxford Book Store to perform in their inaugural program.
