

Annual Report 2013

Coordinator: Dr. Reeta Khosla

It was an eventful year for the college garden committee. The completion of the Rock Garden, the Rose Garden and the Herbal Garden has added to the beauty of the college campus.

The college kept up its tradition of winning accolades at the 55th flower show of the University of Delhi by winning 154 prizes and 8 cups.

Among many other awards, the college also won the Kalindi College trophy for money plant basket, the Vallabhbhai Patel Chest cup for the best roses, the Kirorimal College cup for the best cacti, the Delhi School of Social Work cup for overall best hanging basket.

The gardeners of the college did the college proud by winning the Indian School of International Studies Cup for highest marks in the best mali category.
