The Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya National Mission on Teachers and Teaching emphasizes the need to change the role and task of a teacher from mere disseminator of information and knowledge to the one who advances frontiers of existing knowledge by actively developing and creating new insights into diverse social and physical phenomena.

ABOUT ZAKIR HUSAIN DELHI COLLEGE

Zakir Husain Delhi College is one of the leading college of University of Delhi imparting higher education in Science, Commerce, Humanities and Social Sciences. The college holds the distinction of being in existence well before the existence of University of Delhi. It carries within itself a history of nearly 300 years as an institution of learning. The origin of Zakir Husain Delhi College dates back to the founding of a Madarsa by one of emperor Aurangzeb's Deccan commanders, Ghaziuddin Khan in the closing years of the seventeenth-century. In 1825, Delhi College was engrafted onto this institution by the British East India Company's government. The college was affiliated to Delhi University in 1925, and became one of its constituent degree colleges. Following the partition of India, the Delhi College was revived as a non-denominational institution in 1948 and was renamed Zakir Husain College after 1975 and managed by the Zakir Husain Memorial Trust under the Chairmanship of Prime Minister of India.

Today the college runs undergraduate courses in 21 disciplines and offers 17 post graduate courses. The Strong academic structure is complemented by various societies giving platform to students to nurture their talents in dramatics, music, dance, art, fashion and photography. The college is equipped with state-of-the-art laboratories, ICT enabled classrooms, fully automated, air-conditioned and very rich library, centrally air- conditioned auditorium. Besides well maintained lawns and parks, college houses the ecological spaces for students, herbal, rose and rock gardens which are very well recognized in the Annual Flower Show of the Delhi University. Students are also provided opportunities to explore their caliber and interest in various out-door and in-door games. By January 2020, a new nine storey building beset with smart classrooms, state of the art laboratories, IT infrastructure will be added to the current infrastructure as an expansion facility.

OBJECTIVES OF THE FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME

The year 2018-19 marks Mahatma Gandhi's 150th birth anniversary and preparations are in full swing to commemorate the legacy of Gandhi on a global scale. Gandhi epitomises the refinement and perfection that a person can attain. Rarely do we have persons who pursued truth in life as Gandhi in philosophy and action. Indeed humanity has gained much from his moral wisdom which was the basis of his action. His vision of truth and Non-violence, enduring commitment to social justice, normative economics, religious pluralism, and relentless striving for harmony between nature and human being have become excruciatingly important in the context of today. It is important to revisit some of the aforementioned ideas to understand him and his world view in the context of challenges that confronts us.

Gandhi has made significant contributions but has largely been misunderstood by both his supporters and opponents in India and outside. With this objective to deliberate upon Gandhi's legacy of Inclusiveness that underlines Gandhi's philosophy a Faculty Development Programme has been scheduled to be organized by Zakir Husain Delhi College in the month of September, 2019.

OBJECTIVES OF THE WEBINAR

While Covid-19 is creating havoc across the globe, the current pandemic has also led to the advent of a new era in education. This challenge has created a window to advent the advance mode of teaching and learning. In order to maintain continuity of teaching and learning during the time the Universities are closed due to lockdown, the academics has made an almost complete shift to virtual learning. Though temporary, this shift will surely lead to evolution of our education system resulting in an amalgamation of offline and online mode of teaching. This three-day webinar has been envisioned to provide faculty members with a platform to exchange their teaching and learning experiences during this challenging phase. The sharing of ideas, online tools and aids will help to broaden the perspective of teachers and improve their online teaching skills making them well equipped to handle the changing tides in the future.

About the Workshop:

National Workshop on R Package: dplyr (Grammar of Manipulation)

dplyr, authored primarily by Hadley Wickham was launched in 2014. The package is described as "a grammar of data manipulation, providing a consistent set of verbs ( functions) that help you solve the most common data manipulation challenges. The set of functions are designed to enable data frame manipulation in an intuitive, user-friendly way. Data analysts typically use dplyr in order to transform existing datasets into a format better suited for some particular type of analysis, or data visualization. The entire course will be delivered online. Classes shall be held every day for one hour including practical from March 10-12, 2022 either on Google Meet or Zoom or MS Team. Being practical based course, candidates must have their working reliable laptops in every online class.

Eligibility:

Participant must have studied at least one paper of Mathematics at UG/Senior Secondary level and some basic knowledge of R-Software

Who can apply?

The course will be useful for all the students in different disciplines. the students will be expected to give a qualifying exam to be eligible for certificate. The students can be charged a nominal fee as examination and certificate charges. Joint certificate with GSDS and the Zakir Husain Delhi College will be given.

Both the organizations will jointly organize lectures/workshops/ introduce other innovative strategies to help students understand the importance of nonviolent communication in their daily lives.

Financials:

A portion of the amount received from examination and certificate charges could go to GSDS to facilitate regular videos/innovative activities for the students, which can be mutually agreed upon after discussion at suitable forums in both the institutions.

Implementation Arrangements:-

The Zakir Husain Delhi college will identify a Nodal officer who will directly work with the officers of GSDS to facilitate the successful running the course/lectures/other activities as part of the course.

Duration :- Initially the agreement will be for three years.

Conflict Resolution: Any disputes will be resolved through mutual discussions and negotiations.

Termination:- In case of the need for termination, the MOU can be terminated through mutually agreeable terms.
